Information Disclosure Statement

1. The I.D.S filed 1 December 2004 contains a patent number 5,545,579 where the date and the name of the inventor do not matched with the patent number. In addition the material in patent number 5,545,579 does not seem to match the material disclosed in this application. The examiner considered this patent though it seems like the patent number is incorrect.

Drawings

3. The drawings for sheet 2/5 entered 1 December 2004 have been approved. The sheet however did not contain the words "Replacement Sheet" in the top margin in accordance with article 714 II.D (MPEP). The examiner added this but reminds the applicant's representative that this is required for all drawing changes.

4. The drawings as amended on 1 December 2004 are all considered approved and formal by the examiner.
